It was also stated that under the present zoning ordinance nothing can be done about the church building, but a proposal has been made to change the building code so that buildings of this nature will come up before regular boards in the future. A hearing will be held soon, at which time if there are objections to the proposed building code change, they can be heard. Otherwise, if no objections come up, the change will be made and in the future, all permits will have to come before the Planning Commission and will then come back to the city council for final action.

TWO TIGER CUBS, TWO DEPAUW STARS GET SPECIAL AWARDS

The annual Chamber of Commerce Community dinner, held in connection with the Greencastle Quarterback Club to honor Greencastle and DePauw's football teams, was held in the DePauw Union Building ball room Monday evening with a capacity attendance.

The Rev. Toussaint, pastor of the Presbyterian Church offered the invocation. Louis H. Dirks, Executive Secretary of the Chamber, served as toastmaster and did a splendid job, according to the evening speaker, Vernon Huffman of Bloomington.

Miss Sallie Gilkison, soloist, accompanied by Miss Pemberton, sang several selections which were highly appreciated. The Delta Chi Quartet, one of the better known musical groups on the campus, also furnished a portion of the musical program, closing their group of songs with "White Christmas."

Mr. Dirks introduced a few of his "bosses," including Cloyd Moss, Chamber Vice President; Ernest Collins, incoming Vice President; Lois Arnold, outgoing president and Marion Wilson, incoming president.

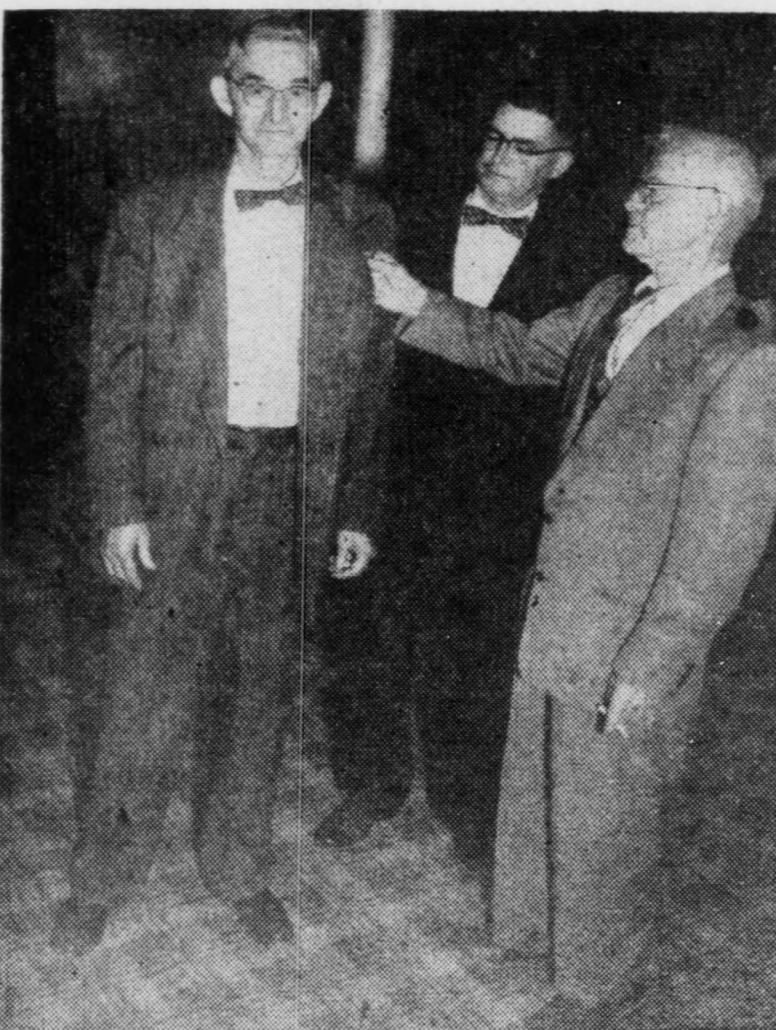

William Unsworth served as master of ceremonies for the Quarterback Club. He introduced several who took over for brief periods, including Tom Goldsberry, director of high school athletics, who said Greencastle had some critics who never saw anything good in athletics, while the greater portion helped the boys in their athletic efforts. He stressed the importance of good, clean athletics and told how valuable they become in future lives of those participating. He said they not only help the individual but serve to strengthen the student body. He predicted that Greencastle is on the threshold of a great athletic era. He asked that the parents and friends of the boys back them up in a loyal manner.

The coaches, Mike Snively of DePauw and Al Nowak of the high school, introduced the members of the squads and each presented the outstanding players with trophies. Chuck Saathoff and Don Austin were named the outstanding back and lineman for the high school team while Bob Fink, guard and Arthur Bryan, back, were chosen by the Tiger squad as outstanding men on the 1954 team.

Vern Huffman, an all-American in both football and basketball, of Bloomington, was the speaker. He was introduced by Hal Hickman, a co-player with Huffman on the state champion New Castle team of 1932. Mr. Huffman praised Mr. Hickman to the skies and gave his parents much credit for his success, saying he knew what discipline was and therefore was a dream of a player for any coach. He said discipline is a fine asset for any athlete and urged that they learn in good stead in the future.

Mr. Huffman said a well rounded athletic program is an asset to any school and urged that the community get behind the program underway at the high school.

EISENHOWER PRAISES THE SMALL TOWN NEWSPAPER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7—There is no need to sell me the small town of America. "There is no need to sell me the small-town newspaper."

President Eisenhower said in a speech delivered to members of the National Editorial Assn., in Washington.

"I think," said the president, "for any American who has the great and priceless privilege of being raised in a small town, there remains always with him nostalgic memories of those days. And the older he grows, the more he senses what he owes to the simple honesty the neighborliness, the integrity that he saw all around him, in those days, and took for granted, and that he learns to appreciate only as he grows older and dwells more in other places of the earth."

"There is no need to sell me the small-town paper. I hope there are those among you who are acquainted with and respect the Abilene (Kans.) Daily Reflector and Chronicle as much as I do. Certainly there is no other paper in the world that I read for so many years at a stretch as I did that one."

Truck Ruling By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7—(UP)—States are powerless to ban from their highways interstate trucks who violate their laws, including habitual overloading, the Supreme Court ruled Monday.

The 8-0 decision, written by Justice Black, said only the interstate Commerce Commission can suspend the Federal Motor Carrier Act.

The ruling thwarted efforts of Illinois to suspend Hayes Freight Lines, Mattoon, Ill., as a repeated violator of a state law governing the load of trucks on its highways.

The law provides, among other things, for the suspension of a carrier's right to use Illinois highways for 90 days or one year, depending upon the number of violations. The U. S. Supreme Court ruled that such state suspensions would conflict with the Motor Carrier Act, under which the ICC issues certificates for interstate operations.

Black said the federal law has a provision designed to leave states free to regulate the sizes and the weights of motor vehicles.

"But it would stretch the statutory too much to say that it also allowed states to revoke or suspend the right of interstate motor carriers for violations," Black commented.

The question of a state's right to suspend or revoke permits of carriers operating entirely within the state would not be involved.

MANY OPPOSE INCREASE IN PHONE RATES

200 PROTESTING PATRONS ATTEND PSC SESSION ON TUESDAY

The Indiana Public Service Commission spent today hearing arguments of the General Telephone Company for an increase in rates totalling nearly $2,000,000 and protests by patrons in 69 communities against the proposed rate increase.

It was estimated that at least 200 protesting patrons were ready and in attendance for the hearing.

Thomas A. Boyd, vice-president of General Telephone Corp., New York City, told PSC the Indiana firm should earn a 7 per cent return on fair value of property to attract capital needed for future improvement of the system.

General now earns 4.1 per cent, according to Controller Frank A. Peter.

Herbert E. Hussey, the utility's president, said a 7 per cent return would require an additional $906,000 in net operating income. Customers would have to pay $1,001.00 more than that to cover taxes.

"The company's continual expansion and increase in depreciation and taxes are causing earnings to decline," Hussey said.

He said minimum wages have increased 75 per cent since 1946 and investments in equipment and other expenses are 150 per cent higher than 1947.

Ira B. Jackson, the company's chief engineer, said General allotted $3.5 million dollars for a building program this year and will expand that if "adequate earnings become available."

Demand Release Of U. S. Airmen

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Dec. 7—(UPI)—The United States and its Korean war allies present to the United Nations today a resolution demanding that Red China release immediately 11 U. S. airmen jailed on trumped-up "spy" charges in violation of the armistice agreement.

Informed sources said the resolution will charge the Chinese Communists with violating the Korean truce by jailing bona fide war prisoners. It will also call for condemnation of all such violations.

These sources said the resolution will instruct Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to negotiate with Peiping for release of the prisoners and report on his negotiations to the General Assembly by Dec. 31.

The resolution will bypass usual debate in subcommittee and go directly to the full assembly where it is an "urgent and important item."

PLAN UNDERGOES STUDY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. (UP)—The much-debated Dixon-Yates power plan went before the securities and exchange commission today for a detailed study of how it will be financed.

The meeting to begin at 6 o'clock will be held in the Mayflower room of the Terre Haute House.

Miss Lucille Carroll, English teacher of Wooster, O., and national president of the Classroom Teachers will be guest speaker. Other guests will include state officers of the Indiana Classroom Teachers Association.

Miss Carroll, a graduate of Ohio State University, has served her local association through numerous committee assignments and as vice president and president. Mr. McCullough urged that all teachers be invited to attend the meeting.

Kibitzers Aren't Wanted;
Players Also Spectators

Mrs. Fusty, the old-fashioned player, is not one to cash an ace on the opening lead just "to get a look at the dummy." She considers that as a show of weakness and a lack of confidence in one's own ability. When she selects the card which, in her opinion, has the best chance to defeat the contract, she doesn't hesitate. She leads it.

The bidding:
South West North East
1 S Pass 2 D Pass
2 H Pass 4 N T Pass
3 D Pass 6 H All Pass

She thought a few moments about the bidding in today's deal and then came out with a trey of clubs. Dummy's queen went on and Mr. Dale was stunned when his king held the trick. He wasn't too shocked to realize that a diamond return was called for and Mrs. Fusty ruffed for the setting trick.

Gloomy Silence

Mr. Heinsite sat in gloomy silence but Mr. Masters ventured a comment. "Too bad we have no kibitzers today," he said. "There have been some remarkable plays and bids."

"That," said Mrs. Fusty, "brings up a subject on which I have some definite opinions. In bridge, the players are both spectators and principals, too."

"A kibitzer is not wanted. He is rather worse than nothing and an impertinence. You glory in the game, not because a spectator sees it, but because your partner sees it. You win, or you lose, for two. Two are exalted, or if two are mortified, you divide the disgrace. A spectator is neutral and bridge abhors neutrality."

Strange Feeling

Mr. Dale had a strange feeling he had heard or read those words before, a feeling he had met Mrs. Fusty before.

"Are those comments original?" he asked her.

"Well, no," replied Mrs. Fusty, apparently with some reluctance. "They are from Charles Lamb's essay 'Mrs. Battle's Opinion on Whist.' But let me tell you, young man, in my opinion they are just as true today as they were when

Mr. Lamb wrote them a hundred and forty years ago."

The exciting new idea behind the motoramic Chevrolet

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Maybe once in a car-buying lifetime, you come across something that breaks all the old patterns and establishes new ones. This is that kind of car. This is the true story of how Chevrolet and General Motors shaped a new idea in steel.

Like most good ideas, this one is pretty simple. But it wasn't an easy one to carry out. For Chevrolet and General Motors set out with the idea of building the first low-priced car that would do all these things:

- bring you the very freshest and finest styling to be had.
- bring you the most advanced engine design and engineering features.
- bring you the kind of performance and the kind of ride that have never been available before in a low-priced car.
- bring you the highest quality of manufacture and materials.

All this in Chevrolet's price field? That did take some doing! And isn't it logical that only Chevrolet and General Motors have the people, the skills, the resources and facilities, to carry out this exciting new concept? Here is how this new Chevrolet changes all your own ideas about cars!

Real Show-Car Styling!

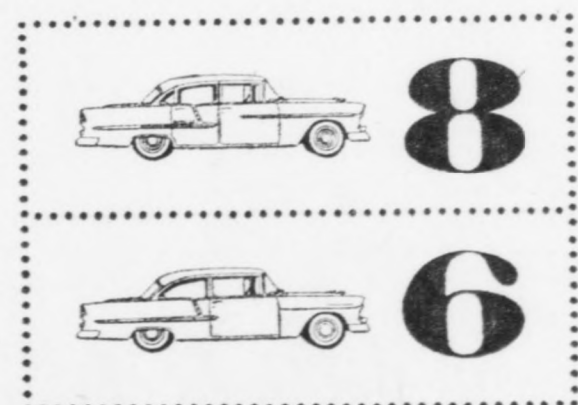

Your eye tells you the Motoramic Chevrolet is no styling "patch-up" job. A rakish, low profile... soft swiftness from its sleek rear fenders to its wide-eyed Sweep-Sight windshield... a new outlook for motoring. And that outlook doesn't change when you slip inside... there's more room for hats and hips... exciting fabrics and trim harmonized with the whole car... as carefully as a bride matches carpet to curtains.

A Sensational Ride!

You live the new idea instantly... you glide... actually glide because spherical joints "roll with the punch" of the road in Chevrolet's new Glide-Ride front suspension. And outrigger rear springs mean new balance in turns... turns made so effortless by new ball-race steering.

And when you stop suddenly, new Anti-Dive braking control checks that nosing down in front... you get more level stopping. Tubeless tires mean much greater protection against blowouts. And with new high-level ventilation there's fresher air.

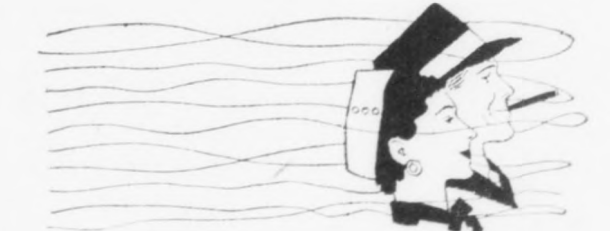

Power Beyond Compare!

You also feel the new idea quickly... quick power like a panther's paw with the new "Turbo-Fire V8" (162 h.p.) and two new "Blue-Flame" 6's. And sparking this performance is a 12-volt electrical system giving you better ignition, faster starting, greater electrical reserve for any of the power assists you might desire. You have a transmission choice of economical Overdrive and improved, automatic Powerglide (optional at extra cost) or standard shift.

Even Air Conditioning!

And if you desire the convenience of power assists (optional at extra cost)... you'll find new power-steering and improved power brakes on all models. Power-controlled windows and powershift seat are available on the Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models, while air conditioning may be added on V8 models.

Won't You Try It?

Here, we can only tell you how successfully the Motoramic Chevrolet expresses the new idea behind it. But the car itself can quickly show you! Come in for a demonstration drive, won't you, first chance you get.

CONCEPT OF LOW-COST MOTORING

Old Gold Host
To Ball State

First conference action of the season is in store for DePauw here Wednesday when the Bengal cagers meet Ball State in Bowman Memorial Gymnasium.

The contest also will inaugurate a 42-game Indiana College Conference schedule and matches two squads which finished the '53-'54 campaign with identical 5-7 league records.

DePauw enters Wednesday's tilt with an unusual one loss-one tie record, resulting from a defeat by Indiana Central and the post-game discovery of a score-book error which put Saturday's Wabash game into the books as a 67-67 deadlock.

In their first competition Saturday, Ball State's Cardinals dropped a squeaker to Hanover, 73-72, on the latter's home floor.
Last season DePauw and Ball State split the annual home-and-home series, putting the all-time record at 20 wins for the Cards and 18 for DePauw.

Top scorer to date for the Tigers is guard Ron McCamack, who potted 35 points in the first two games for a 17.5 average.
Forward Bob Schrier is second with 33.

Ball State is paced by center
Stan Davis, a 21-point producer against Hanover, and guard Jack

Cross. Davis set a one-game ICC scoring record in the second De-Pauw-Cardinal game last year with 35 points.

Against Ball State last year Schrier and McCamack had a combined two-game total of 75 points; and Davis and Cross hit for 76 points against the Tigers.

Both teams are playing under new coaches, with Cal Luther handling the Bengals and Jim Hinga the Cardinals.

Game time is 8 p. m. with the DePauw-Ball State reserve game at 6:15 p. m.

Student Will Be
Chapel Speaker

DePauw University's weekly worship chapel Wednesday will feature the first student speaker of the current academic year.
He is Merle Allshouse, a second semester freshman from Pittsburg, and a philosophy major.

Topic for his chapel address at 10 a. m. in Gubin church will be "A Student Speaks."

Allshouse is treasurer of the Philosophy Club at DePauw and a member of the Methodist Student Union, the Student Union's special events committee, the WGRS staff, and Oxford Fellowship.

WOMEN WILL TAKE PART IN RADIO SERIES

The League of Women Voters of Greencastle will participate in the WGRS radio series "Greencastle Speaks Up" at 5:30 p. m.
Wednesday, Dec. 8. The League members will present an informal panel discussion on the topic of "Home Rule in Indiana."

Members of the league who will take part are Mrs. Clark Norton, president of the Greencastle League, Mrs. Paul Thomas, Mrs. John Ricketts and Mrs.
Robert Poorman. The program moderator is Clark Norton, a member of the Political Science Department at DePauw University.

SECOND BEST BUSINESS
YEAR DRAWING TO CLOSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7 (UP)— On a rising tempo, the United States is winding up the second best business year in history.

It has been a better "second best" than some government economists had anticipated.

Preliminary predictions for next year point to another good year—even a little better than this year although still second to the 1953 record.

The outlook is brightened by full-blast auto production, a recent marked upturn in steel output, and forecasts for a continued construction boom.

The strongest point all this year has been the building industry.

Consumer spending also has set a record. There has been little or no over-all increase in the amount spent to buy tangible goods, but more for services, such as rent, repairs and doctor's bills.

You, too, can do your Christmas shopping with a smile!

1955's most exciting car!

With new Trigger-Torque Power... with styling inspired by the Ford Thunderbird... with a new ride that reduces "road-joint jar"... with 4 new lines to choose from... the 1955 Ford is a totally different kind of passenger car which has no equal in its field.

Ever since its debut, the 1955 Ford has been generating more excitement than any car before it. Small wonder! Each 1955 Ford drew its styling inspiration directly from the Thunderbird—the personal car which caused so much excitement at its debut.

4 brilliant new lines

Much of the excitement stirred up by the 1955
Ford centers around its extended line of cars.
Within the distinguished new Fairlane Series,
the Customline, the Mainline, and the Station Wagon Series are 16 Ford body styles.

1 new Trigger-Torque engines!

You'll command lightning getaway... greater safety through split-second passing with any of Ford's 3 new engines. There's a brand-new 162-h.p. Y-block V-8 with 272 cu. in. displacement and 7.6 to 1 compression ratio. Then, there's an even more powerful 182-h.p.

Y-block Special V-8 offered in combination with new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic Drive in Fairlane and Station Wagon models. It has a 4-barrel carburetor, an extra-high 8.5 to 1 compression ratio and dual exhausts. And Ford continues to bring you America's most modern Six—now the 120-h.p. I-block Six. All deliver Ford's traditional economy.

New Angle-Poised Ride

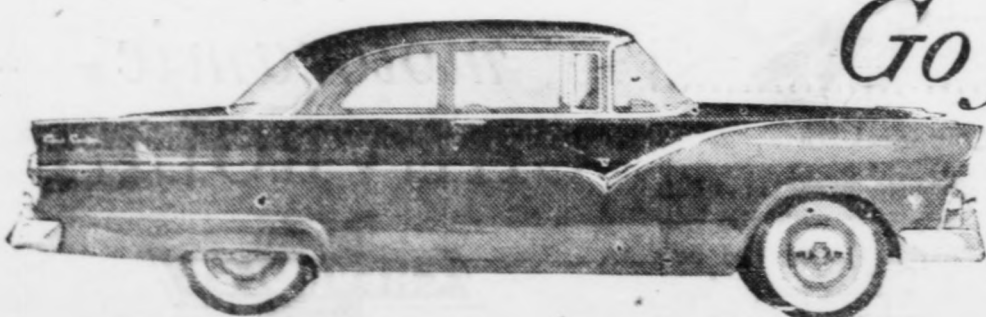

With Ball-Joint Front Suspension arms tilted back, the '55 Ford literally skims over little bumps as well as big ones... reduces road-joint jar. You'll find the smoothest roads are under the new '55 Ford.

LOOKING... AT LIFE By Erich Brandeis

The mail brought a form letter which began:
"Step out of your shell!"
The mailing piece told me that if I am struggling with my personal problems or social and career blocks, the outfit which sent it would teach me SUCCESS (spelled in capital letters).

They would show me, it said, the "Positive Approach."

It did not go into details just HOW they would teach me success and the positive approach. It did promise me, however, that to convince myself of their training's productive effect, there would be no charge for the first visit. AGE, SEX, it said again in capital letters, were NO BARRIER.

The address was a pretty swanky one in New York City, and the offer, it seemed to me, was quite reasonable, provided I had any desire to come out of my shell and become a social or business lion.

I don't know where these people get their lists of names. I don't even know whether perhaps some of my friends might have given mine to them.

At any rate, form letters don't usually make me think. As a matter of fact, most of them (say 99.99/100%) go into the wastebaskets unread.

But this one DID give me some moments of self-analysis.

How many of us do surround ourselves with a hard shell or, as the announcement said, have "social and career blocks"?

How many of us, as Carl G. Jung, the Swiss psychiatrist, called them, introverts, how many extroverts?

And, if you are an introvert, can any course of lessons, any school, any teacher make you—can you yourself make yourself—into an extrovert? And if you can, do you want to?

I have never had a terrible lot of use for what is usually called "the life-of-the-party" type of fellow. You all know that type, of course. He receives you at the door—anybody's door—with a glass in his hand, or maybe with two glasses, one for you. He slaps you on the back, calls you by your first name without knowing your last one, flirts with your wife and is a general all around nuisance.

To be that kind of an extrovert is an accomplishment which, in my opinion, has to come naturally. I cannot learn it nor do you, if I am correct, want to learn it.

Then there are the introverts. I don't mean the "John-a-dreams" type of whom Shakespeare said, "Yet I, a dull and bumpy-metted rascal, unpragmatic of my cause and can say nothing."

Nor do I mean introverts like Soren Kierkegaard, the melancholic Danish philosopher, and the lightheaded and who influenced Paul Sartre of France to found that weird cult known as Existentialism.

No, what I mean, is the introvert who is not social-minded because his mind is busy with more important things than social ones. I mean the introvert who does not care what "the world"—as his immediate group of acquaintances is usually called—thinks of him. I mean the man who is more concerned about how he can be of service to the much larger world, which takes in the whole earth, than about the service others can render to him.

The "Step out of your shell" letter had a reply card enclosed and said "R.S.V.P."

sent Zoning Ordinance of the City of Greencastle, Indiana, which provides that no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected or structurally altered for use enumerated in subdivisions (2) to (8) both inclusive, of division (a) Use Regulation of Section 4—Residence District Regulations, without receiving the approval of the Board of Zoning Appeals of said City after public notice and hearing.

DePauw Group In Practice Telecast

Members of the Television Workshop at DePauw University traveled to Indianapolis this afternoon for a production over the closed television circuit of Station WIRE.

The program, a fantasy entitled "Dining With History," featured an all-student cast, including John Durham, Sue Willard, Virginia North, Carol Cray, Cindy Coyle, Homer Grosvenor, and David Reagler.

Pfafs, Elizabeth Turrell and Gertrude Slack, both members of the DePauw speech department and advisors to the Workshop, accompanied the students.

Staff members for the practice telecast were Eleanor Geffert, producer; Carol Shanklin and Ann Keith, continuity; Judy Melvin, assistant producer, scenery, and properties; and Mary Jean Newlin and Miss Gray, make-up.

THE SHEPPARD CASE

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7 (UP)—Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard's oldest brother—who went to him a few hours after his wife had been murdered and demanded, "Did you do this?"—testifies today in behalf of the 30-year-old osteopath.

Dr. Richard N. Sheppard, 38, will be the third witness for the defense which is seeking to save Dr. Sam from the electric chair. Another brother, Dr. Stephen Sheppard, 34, and Dr. Stephen's wife, Betty, were the first two defense witnesses. Dr. Richard will be followed to the witness stand by his wife, Dorothy, tall, statuesque, and sharp-witted. She testified at the inquest into the bludgeoned slaying of Dr. Sam's wife, Marilyn, that she "may have" once written her a letter mentioning "adjustments that are to be made in the life of a doctor's wife."

AN EXPENSIVE WREATH DECORATES MEMPHIS DOOR

MEMPHIS, Dec. 7.—Dr. Ralph Richener's doorway today sported the most expensive Christmas wreath in town, a $200 gem.

Richener got the wreath from the Little Garden Club. After it was delivered, however, one of the club members discovered that among the various pieces of costume jewelry used to decorate the wreath was a $200 pearl necklace sent in by mistake.

NIGHT WATCHMAN HELPS WITH BURGLAR ALARM

DAVENPORT, Ia., Dec. 7.—Simon Ales, 70, a night watchman, decided a little ingenuity might prove a great asset in his war against crime.

He installed a burglar alarm system in the television sales store where he was employed by stringing piles of tin cans around the store.

Monday, while Ales was sitting 30 feet away, a burglar stepped through the intricate noise maker and stole $600.

SELDOM DOES a court trial draw the public interest and consequent news coverage of the Dr. Samuel Sheppard murder trial in Cleveland. These scenes of reportorial activity in Cuyahoga County Criminal Courts building are only a part of the news gathering efforts. More than 40 reporters are there, 15 of them from the three Cleveland dailies, the rest from other cities and from the wire services. A dozen photographers haunt the building corridors all day long, waiting to "shoot" witnesses. Radio and TV staffers are on duty at the trial. Four teletype machines have direct lines to news wires. It is through such facilities and such concentration of coverage that stories on every aspect of the case of the handsome, young Bay Village osteopath get to you. (International)

AN INTENSE hunt is on for Richard Eugene McDermott, 55, lifer who scored a bold and unusual escape from Ohio penitentiary, Columbus, simply by putting on his hat and coat and walking out with a young woman who came to visit him. McDermott, sentenced for the slaying in 1926 of Don R. Mellet, editor of a crusading Canton, O., newspaper, was assigned to the honor dormitory, outside main walls but still walled in. Thus he wore civilian clothing. (International)

Sectional Forestry Honor to Indiana 4-H'er

Developing proficiency in forestry by learning and demonstrating to others better practices in growing, protecting and utilizing farm timber, paid extra dividends to Richard Friend, 19, of Greencastle.

He is one of six sectional winners in the national 4-H Forestry program, each of whom was awarded an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago by the American Forest Products Industries, Inc.

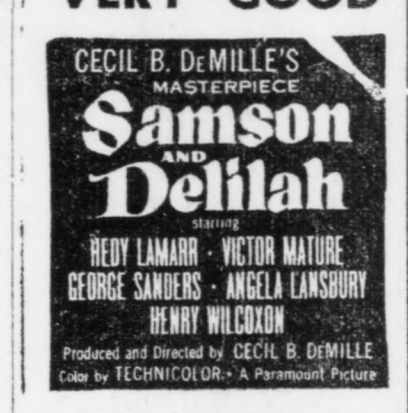

Richard began his project in 1947 with a scrapbook of mounted leaves. He has won blue ribbons every year. This year he planted 1,000 pine trees on a worn out field and exhibited a map of the layout at the fair, winning a blue ribbon.

Chosen as the outstanding 4-H member in his township, Richard represented Indiana at Camp Minnowan, and the American Youth Foundation Camp. He is now a student at Indiana State Teachers College. He is assistant leader of the 4-H club led by Kenneth Miller and William McElroy.
